Encompassing Connecticut, Maine, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, and Vermont, the New England Secondary School Consortium is a pioneering educational partnership committed to fostering forward-thinking innovations in the design and delivery of secondary education across the New England region. The Consortium's bold goal is to ensure that by 2016 every public high school student in the four partner states will receive an education that will prepare them for college, career, and civic responsibility in the interconnected global community of the 21st century. The Consortium is funded by the Nellie Mae Education Foundation and the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation.
